Philipp Holtkamp

Hello! My name is Philipp and I come originally from Münster in Germany At the moment I am a researcher at the University of Jyväskylä in Finland where I am doing my PhD on recommender systems for open educational resources.  I did a Masters in Information systems in Germany. My main research focus at the moment is the influences of cultural differences in the adaptation of learning material.

At the moment I am teaching together with Prof. Jan Pawlowski Global Information Systems and basics of XML.