

Esperanza Granda

I am currently engaged as an Information & Communication Technologies (ICT) Specialist in Education at the Centre for Innovation of the University of Oviedo.

I work as a teacher and tutor for on-line and face-to-face courses for the training of university teachers into the management of the Virtual University Campus. I work also as a pedagogical counselor for teachers as to the management of the Virtual Campus of the University of Oviedo and as to the use of technology in education.